

Howard Goldberg

President, Enterprise Computing Solutions, Americas

ARROW ENTERPRISE COMPUTING SOLUTIONS

Howard Goldberg is president of Enterprise Computing Solutions for the Americas, a segment of Arrow Electronics, Inc. (NYSE: ARW). He oversees all aspects of Arrow's North American business that provides solutions and services for the data center through the IT channel.

A veteran IT professional, Goldberg joined Arrow in 2006 through Arrow's acquisition of SKYDATA, a Canadian distributor that Goldberg founded and that was the first distributor to bring EMC to the channel in Canada. He has leveraged his sales and business acumen in numerous pivotal roles at Arrow, including most recently serving as vice president of sales and business development for Arrow's North American enterprise computing solutions business. In that role, he created and successfully managed account sales functions, public-sector business and financial services solutions, in addition to leading a successful cross-sell initiative across the North American organization.

Goldberg holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from York University in Toronto, Canada, and an MBA from York University's Schulich School of Business.
